Re: Clayton Chemical Site General Notice of Potential Liability Letter

Dear Mr. Turner:

As per our telephone conversation November 23, 2004 this is to clarify that Universal Packaging Corporation has never been involved with the Clayton Chemical Site in Illinois.

Universal Packaging Corporation is a Colorado Corporation since 1980, we are a wholesale distributor of packaging and shipping supplies. We are solely in distribution and have never been in manufacturing nor have we been involved in any business situation with the Clayton Chemical Site. We feel that the letter that was sent to us was sent in error, we are not affiliated with any other operation outside of Colorado, we are independently owned and operated.

I appreciate your returning my call and thank you for your assistance, should you require any further information, please call.

Sincerely,
